

Moisés Weber

Deputy Director of the IFMIF-DONES España Consortium

PhD in Industrial Engineering, Executive MBA and PMP® certified project manager, he worked in industry and entrepreneurship until, in 2005, he fulfilled his dream of working in Fusion at CIEMAT, where he started collaborating with the NBI systems of the Stellarator TJ-II until 2007, when he jumped on the IFMIF project bandwagon, where he have participated in engineering integration, development of radiofrequency and control systems, buildings and plant systems, commissioning, operation, contract management, R&D projects and programs and now, from the IFMIF-DONES España Consortium, he strives to help this project to become a reality soon.