

Karoly Tamas Olajos

Karoly Tamas Olajos is a lawyer and holds an MBA; he is specialised in nuclear regulation, construction law and the management of international organisations. He counts more than 13 years of hands-on experience working in Fusion for Energy (F4E), the European Union organisation responsible for Europe's contribution to ITER, the International Thermonuclear Experimental Reactor. He is Group Leader of the ITER Site & Legal Affairs Group of F4E, the Chair of Working Group 8 on Nuclear Fusion of the International Nuclear Law Association and the Secretary of the International Group of Legal Experts on Fusion Energy (FELEX).

Area of expertise: Expert in Construction Law and FIDIC - Fusion for Energy