

Szymon Wesolowski:

Szymon is as a Legal Officer in Fusion for Energy, where he advises on issues of the international law as well as on contracts and procurement-related matters. He has an extensive experience in providing counsel on international Big Science projects, gained both in Fusion for Energy and in the European Space Agency. A member of a Warsaw Bar Association of Attorneys-at-Law in Poland, Szymon brings a legal perspective to the intersection of international law and complex technological projects.

Area of Expertise: Expert in International Law - Fusion for Energy